

Cancer Council Victoria Privacy Collection Statement

We (Cancer Council Victoria of Level 8, 200 Victoria Parade, East Melbourne, Victoria, 3002) collect, use and disclose personal information about you so we can deliver our services including:

- Marketing: to communicate with you about donations, products, services, campaigns, causes and events;
- Support services: to provide you with information and support services, and to evaluate and report on these services;
- Research: to conduct and/or fund research into cancer causes, as well as prevention, diagnosis, treatment and survivorship;
- Health promotion: to provide you with information about cancer risk factors, such as UV exposure, tobacco and obesity, and to seek your support for campaigns;
- Volunteering and other support: to enable you to assist us with volunteering, community fundraising, advocacy and other activities where we seek the community's assistance; and
- Other purposes: communicating with you in relation to our operations, activities and objectives, to verify your identity, to improve and evaluate our programs and services and to comply with relevant laws.

If you do not provide us with your personal information and/or if we cannot collect this information, we may be unable to respond to you, provide you with requested services or information, or tailor the content of our websites to your preferences. We may disclose your personal information to:

- External support services: to health care professionals, lawyers, other professionals, counsellors, funders, financiers, co-ordinators, volunteers, service providers, agencies and not-for-profits that provide support services;
- Researchers: to conduct research studies to the causes of cancer, as well as prevention, diagnosis, treatment and cures;
- Third parties for marketing purposes: we may provide your contact details to other like-minded organisations to contact you with information that may be of interest to you. From time to time, we participate in data collectives where we share your personal information (other than sensitive information) with other organisations;
- Contractors and service providers: who perform services on our behalf, such as mailing houses, printers, information technology services providers (including interstate and offshore cloud computing service providers), archiving services, database contractors and telemarketing agencies;
- Corporate partners: who may wish to provide special offers to Cancer Council supporters; and
- Cancer Council Australia and State and Territory Cancer Councils: that are members of Cancer Council Australia.

Our privacy policy contains further information about how Cancer Council Victoria may collect, use and manage personal information, including information about how you may access and correct your personal information or make a complaint about a breach of privacy and how we will deal with such a complaint. Our Privacy Statement is available at www.cancervic.org.au/privacy or from us on request (at the contact details above).
